

Bus, 4 Autos Pile Off Road, 30 Are Injured

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A cross-country Trailways bus loaded with sleeping passengers fell down a highway embankment during a rainstorm and four automobiles piled up behind it today. At least 30 persons were injured.

Two of the injured were in critical condition at Baptist Hospital. They were drivers D. W. Arnold of Shreveport, La., and passenger Jose Campos of South America.

Ambulances from Jackson made shuttle runs between the city hospitals and the wreck site three miles west of nearby Clinton.

The bus was en route from Los Angeles to Miami, Fla.

Some of the injured, interviewed while awaiting emergency treatment at a hospital, gave this version of the crash:

The bus, headed east during a driving rainstorm, swerved to avoid a car which was passing another vehicle.

The bus skidded on the slick pavement and tumbled down a 30-foot embankment.

Victims were unable to agree whether the bus turned over twice or three times.

Some passengers were hurled through the windows.

Moments later, an automobile slowed as it neared the wreck site. Another vehicle skidded into the rear of the car.

In a few minutes, a third car stopped and a fourth car slammed into its rear.

The bus carried approximately 30 passengers; the four cars, 12 persons.

Several passengers helped drag the injured from the twisted bus.

Poultry Festival Gets Underway Here Today

Indians Hunt With Tranquilizers

AZTEC, N.M. (AP)—A band of Ute Indians today stalked a buffalo across the low mountain country of northwest New Mexico.

No bows and arrows for these hunters, though. They were armed with a gun that shoots tranquilizer pellets.

The Utes want the buffalo alive and in good shape. She is one of seven the tribe keeps for ceremonial purposes.

She left the tribal grounds in southwestern Colorado Thursday and wandered to near the Cedar Hill community in northwest New Mexico.

End to Top Level Trips Is Certain

By JOHN SCALI

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—A series of staggering propaganda blows within a month, topped off by the blowup of President Eisenhower's trip to Japan, may spell the end of American top-level personal diplomacy for a long time.

The unhappy chain of events, resulting at least in part from faulty estimates and miscalculations by U.S. officials, could also curb the desire of a future president to embark on goodwill visits abroad.

The latest setback, with its possibility of grave repercussions on Japan's fragile democracy, could also lead to a sweeping review of fundamental American strategy for countering the Moscow-Peking "hate America" campaign.

Seldom in diplomatic history has a U. S. president been rebuffed by three successive reverses of the magnitude Dwight D. Eisenhower has had to endure.

In 31 days of repeated crisis, the President has been hit by 1. the fur over American spy plane flights and the subsequent collapse of the summit conference;

2. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's withdrawal of his invitation to Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union, and 3. the riot-scattered end of his plan to visit friendly Japan.

The President's aides may argue that Eisenhower emerged with an unblemished reputation because the Communists so obviously exploited developments to their own ends.

But in Eisenhower's own words, the collapse of his Tokyo visit is a blow to his announced quest for peace. Newspapers throughout the free world viewed the events in Tokyo as a victory for world communism. Many said American prestige had suffered a severe blow. Both the Soviet Union and Red China are gloating at the picture of Eisenhower cruising the Pacific with the door to Japan slammed in his face.

Post-mortems are inevitable. All the evidence is not in but enough of the behind-scenes happenings is known to cite these examples of what appears to be a series of miscalculations:

1. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II in Tokyo was wrong, along with top administration officials, in believing a wave of popular revulsion in Japan would develop and force fanatic leftists to cease off their demonstrations before Eisenhower's arrival.
2. It was an error to conclude that Japanese police could control the demonstrators. This view was not shared by Secret Service Chief U. E. Burman, who was alarmed three weeks before the trip began.
3. Lower-ranking aides warned it would be courting disaster for Eisenhower to arrive in Japan on June 19, the day the ratification of the controversial U. S.-Japan security treaty took effect.

Swine Study Days are planned next month in the northwestern and southwestern parts of the state. The programs will be held at Fayetteville on July 12 and at Hope on July 14. Each event will be held at the University of Arkansas Agricultural Experiment Station at each location. All people interested in the swine industry are invited to attend either or both days.

The following topics will be given at each location: Value of antibiotics in swine finishing rations—Dr. K. W. Scott, associate animal husbandman; trends in feeder pig production—A. L. Owen, Extension livestock marketing specialist; how sorghum grains compare with corn—Dr. P. R. Dr. Warren Gifford, head of the department of animal industry and veterinary science, will preside over each day's program, which will begin at 10 a. m. and will end by 3 p. m. Lunch may be purchased on the grounds at each site.

At Fayetteville, Dr. E. M. Cralley, Station Director, will open the third annual Swine Study Day in the Livestock Pavilion about two miles north of the University campus. In addition to the above topics, Dr. Gifford will relate benefits of a research program to swine producers, and Dr. Noland will discuss the use of cooked, unextracted soybeans as a protein supplement.

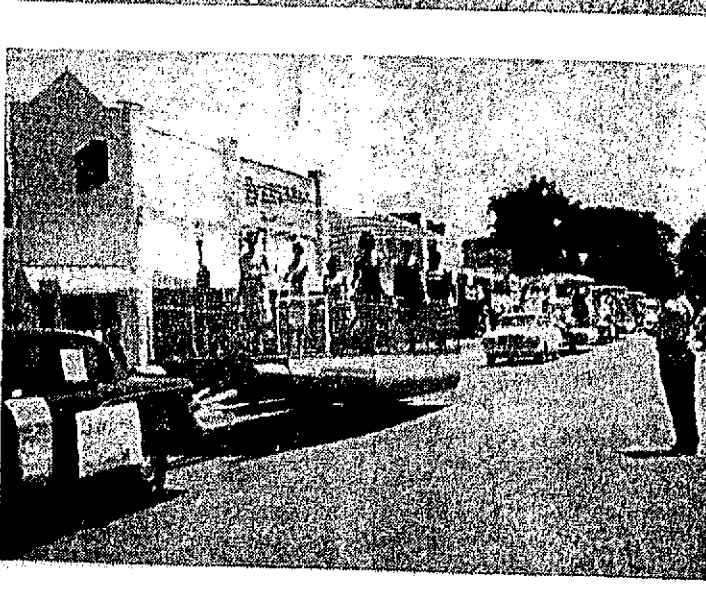

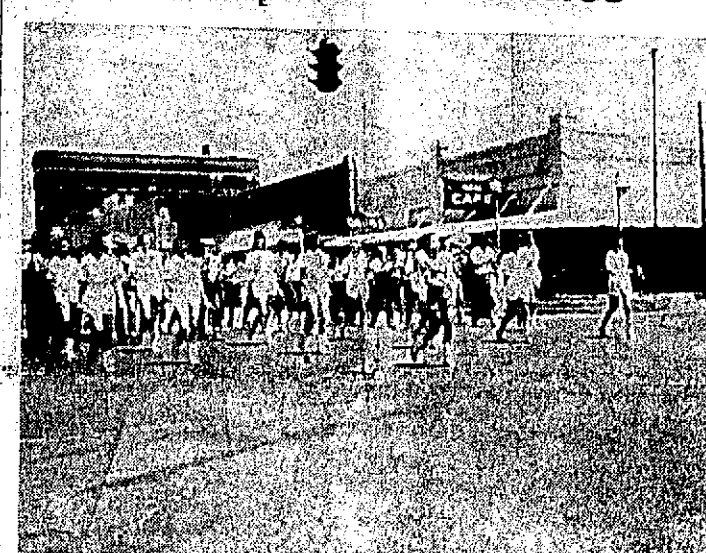

At Hope, the Swine Study Day will be held at the Southwest Branch Station headquarters about four miles northeast of Hope off Highway 67. In addition to the topics listed for both locations, C. M. Bittle, assistant director in charge of the Southwest Station, will welcome the guests; Dr. Cralley will discuss agricultural research in Arkansas; and Dr. Noland will give results of swine breeding research.

Survivors include his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Bobby Jean Smith and a brother, Luther Deor, of the mail the plane was carrying, because of the danger of avalanches.

Hired Students Still Rioting Against Pact

By GENE KRAMER

TOKYO (AP)—A Socialist leader was stabbed today as 20,000 students massed outside Japan's Parliament building for new demonstrations against alliance with the United States.

Premier Nobusuke Kishi's ruling conservatives again defiantly announced they would go ahead with ratification of the U.S.-Japan defense treaty.

Afterward, a government spokesman said, elections will be called at which the conservatives will seek a mandate from the Japanese people for new laws to curb communist violence.

Jotaro Kawakami, a leader of the Socialist opposition to the Japanese-American treaty, was stabbed in the shoulder outside a building in the Parliament compound by an extreme rightist.

The wound apparently was not fatal, but Kawakami fell to the ground, bleeding profusely. His assailant was turned over to the police.

The student mob massed outside Parliament for a new effort to bring down Kishi's government and smash the security treaty was told over loudspeakers of the attack.

"Kawakami's injury is not serious," the announcement said. "There is no danger to his life." There was a possibility the incident would become a new rallying point for the leftist front backing the riotous campaign against Kishi.

The death of a girl during the mass assault on Parliament Wednesday has already become a symbol for the anti-Kishi forces. The mood of the students did not turn ugly until night fell, however.

Then some threw stones at police lined up inside the Parliament grounds and beat sticks on the walls of the compound.

"Bakayaro (fool!)" they chanted at the police as they snaked through the streets around Parliament.

Socialist Chairman Inejiro Asanuma rushed to confer with Kishi over the stabbing. Asanuma had been refusing for several weeks to meet with Kishi unless the Prime Minister would agree to resign.

Kosaku Shinoda, spokesman for Kishi's Liberal-Democratic party, told newsmen he believed the Premier would resign after ratification of the treaty providing for U.S. military bases in Japan for at least another 10 years.

"It is my opinion Kishi will make a common sense move," Shinoda added.

"If Kishi goes there will be a new leader for the Liberal-Democratic party and with that a lot of the hate will leave."

He said the 64-year-old Premier "has become more or less a scapegoat."

"He has taken on his shoulders all the hatred against conservatives, against Americans, against everything," Shinoda said.

If Kishi can hold on, ratification "has become more or less a scapegoat."

Expelled Envoys Are Out of Cuba

HAVANA (AP)—The U. S. Embassy said today two assistant attaches expelled by Cuba on charges of conspiring with counterrevolutionists have left Cuba. The embassy said William G. Friedemann of Stillwater, Okla., left Thursday night, and Edwin L. Sweet of Abilene, Tex., left this morning.

Both Americans are assistant legal attaches and former FBI agents.

The State Department so far had not said whether it would expel two Cuban attaches from Washington in retaliation.

U. S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal protested the expulsion order, the first such against a U. S. Embassy official in Havana since Castro's successful revolt against the Fulgencio Batista government.

Embassy officials said Sweet and Friedemann were visiting some Cubans when they were seized by agents of defense chief Raul Castro's military intelligence.

The two Americans were turned loose after several hours and a tongue-lashing by Raul Castro himself.

Negro Fined for Carrying a Weapon

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The father of a Negro graduate of Central High School was fined on appeal yesterday for carrying a pistol the day the school reopened last year on an integrated basis.

Ellis Thomas was arrested the night of Aug. 12 shortly after he left the home of L. C. Bates, field secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. Mrs. Bates is president of the organization.

Earlier Aug. 12 Central High School, along with Hall High School, had reopened with limited integration. Police broke up a demonstration by white persons near Central.

Thomas' son, Jefferson, graduated from Central late last month.

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby upheld a fine of $50 and $5 costs which Municipal Judge Odum Glover had imposed against Ellis Thomas for carrying a concealed weapon.

Kirby acquitted Dr. Garman P. Freeman, a Negro dentist, who lives next door to Bates. Freeman also had been fined $50 and costs on a weapon charge by Glover.

The two men were arrested in an automobile near the Bates home.

Isaiah Mollen, a guard at the Bates home, also was in the automobile. Police said he was wearing a pistol and that there also was a carbine in the car. He was an honorary deputy sheriff at the time and was not charged.

Seventh Fleet Surrounds Ship Carrying Ike

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—President Eisenhower steamed north toward the Nationalist Chinese island fortress of Formosa today as Chinese Communist guns bombarded the offshore islands, 110 miles from his destination.

Peiping Radio said the pounding by thousands of guns was a display of "contempt and scorn" for the U. S. President.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry in Taipei said the Communist shelling from the mainland, which began at 8 p.m. local time, lasted up 55 minutes later.

Sticking to their self-imposed rule of firing at the Quemoy complex only on odd-numbered days, the Communists omitted any mention of continued firing Saturday, while the President is on Formosa. They said they would shoot some more Sunday, another odd-numbered day.

The U. S. 7th Fleet kept unflagging vigil around the presidential vessel. The fleet commander, Vice Adm. Charles D. Griffin, had predicted the Communists "might well do something" further to mar the Eisenhower trip, already highlighted by cancellation of his visit to Japan.

(The Chinese Communists announced they would shell Quemoy Friday and Sunday "to show the great Chinese people's contempt and scorn for Eisenhower.") Peiping said the two days are in accordance with their rule of shelling Quemoy on odd-numbered days, but they also mark the eve of Eisenhower's arrival on Formosa and his departure.

Eisenhower slept late this morning aboard the heavy cruiser St. Paul, flagship of the fleet. He worked for a while on his revised trip schedule, then planned an afternoon of relaxation. He had appeared weary and grim as he boarded the cruiser late Thursday night in Manila Bay after his tremendous reception in the Philippines and the disappointing cancellation of his visit to Tokyo.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President did not believe the blowup of his Tokyo visit had marred his prestige or hurt U.S. national interests. He has been in touch with the State Department but has received no messages thus far from U.S. congressional leaders, Hagerty added.

It was no secret, however, that Eisenhower was unhappy that he was not going to Japan because of Communist-inspired violence.

TOKYO (AP)—Peiping Radio reported thousands of Chinese Communist guns bombarded Quemoy today in a display of "contempt and scorn" for President Eisenhower.

The guns on the mainland opened up at 8 p.m. local time. The Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry in Taipei said they eased their fire 55 minutes later.

There were no reports of counterfire by the Nationalists, suggesting that the Communist shelling was not heavy enough to warrant retaliation. The last time the Communists fired more than 1,000 shells at the offshore islands was on Jan. 7, 1959.

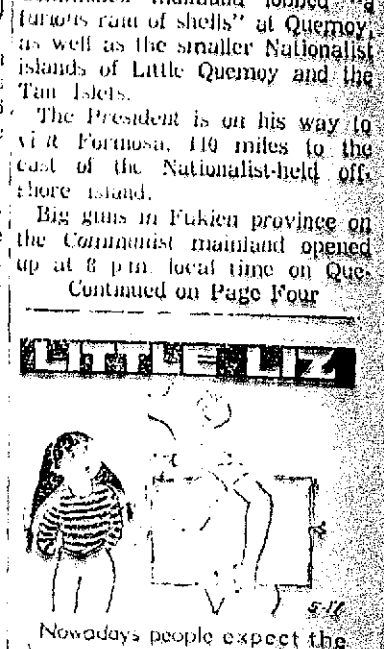

Peiping Radio, however, said guns in Fukien province on the Communist mainland lobbed "a rain of shells" at Quemoy, as well as the smaller Nationalist islands of Little Quemoy and the Tan Islands.

The President is on his way to visit Formosa, 110 miles to the east of the Nationalist-held offshore island.

Big guns in Fukien province on the Communist mainland opened up at 8 p.m. local time on Quemoy.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today that cancellation of President Eisenhower's trip to Japan "hurts our prestige" and "perhaps we should have exercised a little more foresight."

But the Senate Foreign Relations committee chairman said the collapse of the President's plans should not be allowed to interfere with U. S. ratification of the new security treaty with Japan.

Fulbright said the visit and its cancellation had "nothing to do with the merits of the treaty."

On July 3rd the boys will go on an eastern tour through the great Smoky Mountains and on to Washington, D. C., where they will spend a week. They will visit Annapolis Navy Academy and Philadelphia and tour West Point Military Academy of Niagara Falls, the edge of Canada and back to Detroit, Mich., and visit one of the automobile factories to St. Louis, Mo., and will reach camp July 22nd.

Says Racial Troubles Aids Communists

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

H. E. Williams told an Owensboro, Ky., audience last night that race troubles, especially those in Arkansas, have given the Communists more help than "a shipload of hydrogen bombs."

The candidate for governor for Arkansas said the race issue is the most important tool America has handed Communism "to strike deadly blows against us all over the world."

Williams expressed alarm at what he called America's trend toward socialism and also said he is alarmed at the strength of monopolies in the U. S.—particularly in the realms of medicine, education and insurance.

He spoke at the close of a citizenship course conducted by General Electric Co. for its Owensboro employees.

The Southern Baptist College president was due to return to Arkansas today to make a speaking tour of Clarendon, Moro and Marion.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus speaks today to labor leaders at a Little Rock dinner sponsored by the Arkansas State Council of State, County and Municipal employees.

Faubus announced yesterday that Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney will be in charge of county organizations in the governor's campaign for a fourth term. Faubus said Cheney goes off the state payroll Thursday.

The governor said he would open his Little Rock campaign headquarters sometime this week. He said his executive secretary, Rolla Fitch, would remain at the Capitol and will not take part in the campaign.

Dan B. Dobbs of Fort Smith was named yesterday to organize "Citizens for Joe Hardin" committees in Arkansas' 75 counties. Hardin is one of the four men opposing Faubus.

Dobbs managed the 1958 campaign of Rep. J. W. Trimble (D-Ark.) when Trimble was re-elected to Congress.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, another candidate for governor, was in Columbia County shaking hands yesterday. Hal Millsap Jr. is touring the Arkansas River Valley this week in his campaign bus on behalf of his candidacy for the governorship.

Ortiz Change Mind, Will Fight Loi

By ALAN CLINE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Junior welterweight champion Carlos Ortiz changed his tune today and offered Italian Duilio Loi, loser in a close and grueling 15-round title fight, a rematch.

Ortiz, 23-year-old Puerto Rican born New Yorker, contended before the first round bell that Wednesday night's nationally televised title bout would be a warm up, a stepping stone to a battle with Joe Brown, who holds the more lucrative lightweight boxing crown.

But after the split decision verdict, Ortiz commented, "Sure I'd like a rematch. I think it would be a terrific match and would fill the Cow Palace."

Only 4,252 paying fans showed up at the 16,000-seat arena, paying a gross $20,411 to watch Ortiz, 137½, and Loi, 140, belt each other.

Loi, 31, who lost only his second of 112 fights, said he rejoined his hand in the second round. The hurt fist had caused a two-week postponement.

Loi said he would welcome a rematch.

Referee Vern Bybee and Judge Matt Zidich scored the fight even after 13. Judge Fred Bottaro had Ortiz two points in front.

Bybee scored the last two rounds, both furious, for Ortiz. Zidich saw them for Loi; Bottaro had them even. The AP gave each a round.

The final verdict: Bybee and Bottaro for Ortiz, 145-143 and 148-146; Zidich for Loi, 145-143. The AP had it for Ortiz, 145-143.

It is with deep gratitude that we take this means of expressing our appreciation to all who were so thoughtful during our recent bereavement. We are most grateful for every act of kindness.

OUT WHERE THE COUNTRY CAN TEAR A TRUCK TO PIECES—

Chevy middleweights get 1/3 more work done in a day!

Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride paying every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sideways on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

Dodgers Get Key Test in Pirate Series

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers, who have won 10 of their last 11 games, will find out whether they're really on the way back tonight when they open a three-game series with Pittsburgh's National League-leading Pirates.

The Dodgers climbed into fifth place with a 10-6 decision over last-place Philadelphia Thursday night. The champs, nine games out of first place, have won four of their last five games—all against Cincinnati and the Phils. Pittsburgh completed a three-game sweep at San Francisco with a 10-7 victory. The Pirates now have a four-game lead over the second-place Giants who have four in a row. Milwaukee, five games back in third, defeated the Chicago Cubs 10-7. Fourth-place St. Louis made it four straight, spilling Cincinnati to sixth with a 6-5 decision.

The Pirates, picking right-hand-er Vern Law (9-2) to face the Dodgers' Stan Williams (5-0) tonight, took two of three in their last trip to Los Angeles. But the Dodgers sent them skidding out of first place with a three-game sweep at Pittsburgh three weeks ago.

In the American League, Baltimore bounced back on top by defeating Cleveland 3-2 in 11 innings. That gave the Orioles a 11-game lead over the Indians and New York, tied for second. Kansas City ended the Yankees' winning streak at seven, 5-1, with their first victory over southern Whitey Ford in seven years. The Chicago White Sox beat Washington 10-4. Detroit defeated Boston 6-5 in 10 innings.

Wally Moon and Frank Howard each hit three-run homers for the Dodgers, who tagged loser John Buzhardt (2-5) and three relievers for 15 hits. Moon's shot climaxed a four-run third and he then brought in the clincher with a sacrifice fly in the fifth for a total of 22 RBIs in a 12-game hitting streak.

Southern Johnny Podres (6-5) won for the fourth time in his last five decisions. He gave up 10 of the Phils' 14 hits and needed relief help in a four-run eighth.

Bob Skinner drove in five runs for Pittsburgh, bringing the Bucs from behind with a grand-slam homer in a six-run fifth inning as they beat Jack Sanford (4-3) for the first time in two years. Consecutive triples by Don Hoak and Bill Mazeroski gave Pittsburgh the decisive run in a three-run eighth against reliever Johnny Antonelli. Wilmer (Vinegar) Bend (Mizell) (3-4) was the winner, but was chased in a five-run ninth.

Kansas City in First Win Over the Yankees

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the Kansas City A's finally decided to stop the nonsense, they really did a job. They belted the Yankees 9-1 Thursday night, blocking their shot at the American League lead.

It was the A's first victory over the Yanks in nine tries—and their first over southern Whitey Ford in seven years.

With the Yankee defeat, Baltimore bounced back into first place by 1½ games over New York and Cleveland, tied for second. The Orioles had beaten the Indians 3-2 in 11 innings on Ron Hansen's home run in an afternoon game.

The Chicago White Sox clung to fourth place, 2½ games behind, by whipping Washington 10-4. Fifth-place Detroit defeated Boston 6-5 in 10 innings after Ted Williams' 499th home run gave the Red Sox a tie in the ninth.

In the National League, Pittsburgh built a four-game lead by beating second-place San Francisco 10-7 for a sweep of the three-game series. Third-place Milwaukee defeated Chicago's Cubs 10-7.

St. Louis made it four straight with a 6-5 win at Cincinnati. Los Angeles beat Philadelphia 10-6.

Left-hander Bud Daley's four-hit pitching made it a breeze for the A's who had lost 14 in a row to Ford since August 22, 1953.

Daley, top winner in the AL and tied with Pittsburgh's Vern Law and St. Louis' Larry Jackson as the winningest in the majors, struck out four and walked four while squaring his lifetime mark against New York at 4-4. The Yanks' run came in the second inning, when a walk to Ford forced it home.

Ford (2-5), losing three in a row for the second time in a nine-year career, was beaten in a two-run first. Bob Johnson's double, infield hits by Hank Bauer and Dick Williams and a single by Norm Siebern, did it. The A's, who were 0-13 against Ford since their shift to Kansas City, then chased the little lefty on Johnson's two-run single as they scored five in the seventh.

Baltimore won the series at Cleveland three games to one after blowing a 2-0 lead in the ninth. Jack Fisher (5-4) gave up seven hits, losing the shutout and the lead in the ninth on Johnny Romano's home run. Tito Francona's double and a two-out pinch single by Chuck Tanner. Barry Lutzman (1-1) was the loser in relief.

The White Sox picked up four unearned runs in the third, blew a 4-2 lead and then beat ex-mate Ray Moore (1-2) with a sixth-inning run. Earl Batley and Bob Allison each hit two-run homers.

Consecutive one-out singles by pinch-hitter Sandy Amoros, Eddie Yost and Frank Bolling beat Boston for Tiger reliever Dave Sisler on the victory although Dick Donovan was the pitcher of record of the season, came off lefty reliever Hank Aguirre.

Formosa Next Visit TAIPEI (AP) - Cancellation of President Eisenhower's invitation to visit in Japan prompted speculation today that he might be asked to extend his two-day stay on the Nationalist stronghold of Formosa.

He plans to be on this island Friday and Saturday. There was no immediate consultation on extending the visit, which Chinese Nationalists were determined to make as memorable as possible for Eisenhower.

Chapter XXIX

"Maybe McQueen's right, Ry and easy does it till they make Duke said, 'Let's try for town a play,' he decided. He frowned and get it over with. He's got me; 'Trouble with being the law is and now that he has, maybe I'm you've got to hold tight till some- glad. Maybe there's a chance for body else starts the trouble.' me in court."

"Duke," Buckner said intently, "a man's reputation is his armor only as long as there's no crack in it. McQueen's has got a crack a mile wide. How many people have seen it I don't know, but one man has. Spence Rigby, who is dead set on hanging you."

McQueen leveled his gun, his voice hardening. "I call the tune," he said. "I'm gambling that Doreas got clear and that we'll get clear. I'm done with arguing, Buckner. I warned you that if you sided against the law, I'd bring you along with Duke. You can shuck your gun-belt, too. You're under arrest."

"And if I tell you to go to blazes?"

"Don't do it. This time I didn't leave my gun on a table. It's lined on your brisnet, and the smoke of it will cover any crack in my armor you think you're seeing. Now shuck that gun-belt!"

Buckner stared, and this was like the other night when he had looked at McQueen in the sheriff's quarters after Spence Rigby had left and, looking, had realized the depth of McQueen's desperation and seen how time had worn away the rock. Knowing this, Buckner shrugged, fumbled at his belt and let it drop. He took it in McQueen's direction.

McQueen, moving carefully, his tall, angular shadow flung dancing upon the cave wall by the dying firelight, picked up the two gun-belts and looped them over his left arm. He gestured with his gun. "Let's go," he said.

Ry and Duke came out of the cave, herded ahead by McQueen. He mounted his own horse and accompanied first Duke to his picketed horse and then Buckner to where the livery-stable animal had been hidden out.

McQueen herded the two single file ahead of him. Buckner up front, as they followed the windings of the gulch trail McQueen still held his gun.

Finally the gulch widened to meadow openness, and in the meadow a fire burned and horses moved and a tent stood, and near the fire were the figures of four — no, five — men, for here was Hatchet's camp.

Now there was room for the three to ride abreast, and Duke moved up stirrup to stirrup beside Buckner. McQueen moved up, too, and sat his saddle. "Slow and easy does it till they make a play," he decided. He frowned and get it over with. He's got me; 'Trouble with being the law is and now that he has, maybe I'm you've got to hold tight till some- glad. Maybe there's a chance for body else starts the trouble.' They moved forward at a walk, heading across the meadow, each step of their mounts bringing them closer to the five. One of these crouched by the fire; the others were unsaddling. The one by the fire was Rigby, and it was he who spied the three first.

Nearest Rigby was Rufe York, Buckner guessed from the bulk of the fellow; but with the firelight so feeble, he could only be sure of Rigby and his yellow slicker. Rigby darted toward a rifle leaning against a pile of gear. There would be no parley, no wordy defiance of the law. Rigby had recognized them and knew Duke to be one of them, and Rigby got to the rifle and brought it up. Flame broke from the muzzle, and the crash of the gun bounded from the gulch walls, bounced back and forth in echo.

"My gun," Buckner shouted at him. "Give me my gun! You'll get it back once I'm free of Hatchet!"

For a second McQueen hesitated. No reading that face, lost in shadow beneath the hat brim. Then McQueen plucked a gun from one of the belts looped over his saddle-horn and sent it sailing through the air. Buckner caught it. The three charged forward, thundering straight across the meadow.

Rigby, down on one knee, levered the rifle, firing shot after shot. Too angry to aim, Buckner judged: the bullets were a wild storm scattered everywhere. Other Hatchet hands, caught up in the contagion of excitement, were firing, too. The meadow became an explosion of sounds.

They swept past the place where Buckner, listening to Tull and Rigby, had lain hidden last night. Duke hit the thicket first and sent his horse along the trail leading through it. McQueen swung after him. Rigby still fired, the bullets slipping through the trees. Buckner followed McQueen; but with the timber closed around him, he swung down from his saddle, hauled at the reins, and dragged his horse into a clump of bushes. He tied the mount securely. McQueen brought his own horse around and came back toward Buckner.

"Get on!" Buckner cried. "They'll be coming after us." This time McQueen did no hesitating. He lifted the empty-holstered gun-belt from his saddle-horn and tossed it to Buckner, then wheeled his horse and headed on west. Buckner heard the dwindling beat of hoofs as McQueen and Duke put distance behind them.

He ran back down the trail toward the meadow, the gun-belt looped over his arm. From the edge of the timber, he saw three men, Rigby one of them, up into saddles and charging toward him. Two others struggled to get saddles onto horses. He fired, and one of the three riders shouted in pain and clutched at his arm and turned aside. They broke before his barrage and spilled from saddles.
